It's Time to Nominate Cape Cod's Most Charitable Businesses and Individuals for the 2024 Distinguished Service to Philanthropy Awards

Philanthropy Partners of Cape and Islands Opens Nominations for Distinguished Service to Philanthropy Awards for 2024

The public encouraged to nominate Cape Cod and the Islands most charitable businesses and individuals.

March 14, 2024, Hyannis, MA - The Philanthropy Partners of the Cape and Islands invites nominations for its 2024 Distinguished Service to Philanthropy Awards which will be presented at the 27th Annual Philanthropy Day on Cape Cod, November 13 at The Emerald Resort: Irish Village, Hyannis. Nominations can be submitted at www.capecodgiving.org.

This prestigious conference attracts hundreds of professional fundraisers, executive directors, board members, and volunteers across the region. Each year at Philanthropy Day, the nonprofit community presents Distinguished Service to Philanthropy awards in four categories: Philanthropist, Business Organization, Volunteer and Youth.

“The Distinguished Service to Philanthropy awardees exemplify the best of our caring and generous community. They support many different nonprofits, and they inspire others to do the same. It's important at Philanthropy Day that we celebrate these outstanding individuals and all we have accomplished with their help,” said Cyndy Cotton, committee co- chair, Philanthropy Day on Cape Cod.

The nomination deadline is June 14th and members of the nonprofit community are encouraged to collaborate on nominations for awardees who support multiple organizations and causes. Criteria are as follows:

Outstanding Philanthropist Award Criteria: Presented to an individual or family with a proven record of exceptional generosity and demonstrated outstanding civic and charitable responsibility and whose generosity encourages others to take philanthropic leadership roles in the local community.
