Philanthropy Partners of the Cape and Islands Announces Keynote Speaker for 2024 Philanthropy Day on Cape Cod

July 19, 2024 Hyannis, MA - Philanthropy Partners of the Cape and Islands (PPCI) is pleased to announce that Kara Logan Berlin, founder and CEO of Harvest, will be delivering the keynote address at the organization's 27th Annual Philanthropy Day on Cape Cod conference, slated for Wednesday, November 13, 2024 at the Hyport Conference Center at the Emerald Resort in Hyannis, Massachusetts.

Logan Berlin is an experienced development professional who founded Harvest, a consultancy that provides guidance and strategies to help non-profit organizations increase their operational efficiency and enhance their fundraising results. With more than 25 years dedicated to helping non-profit organizations amplify their impact, Logan Berlin will be sure to inspire with a presentation on fundraising with a purpose and strategies for intentional success, a topic which compliments the 2024 Philanthropy Day theme: Purpose, Passion, Possibility.

PPCI invites you to join Logan Berlin as she shares best practices for increasing private revenue, building an engaged and accountable board of directors, developing a major gift pipeline of donors and champions, and cultivating the next generation of philanthropists and fundraisers.

"This is a wonderful opportunity to gain insight from a passionate fundraiser who has extensive experience working with non-profits to strengthen their skills and achieve better philanthropic outcomes", Jennifer Curran, PPCI Board President said. "Kara is certain to engage and empower attendees to explore what is possible with purpose and strategy".
